Audi design UNIVERSE

19.11.2015
Augustinhalle
Ingolstadt

For some years now Audi design has been cooperating successfully with international design schools. The results of the most recent cooperation projects are being presented on site in Ingolstadt. The "Audi design UNIVERSE" provides an exciting network for the upcoming designers and for Audi design itself. In total 76 students from four leading universities in Dresden, Milan and Helsinki are exhibiting their projects.

Official opening and presentations at 4:00 pm
(food & drinks will be served)
